Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

This notice is provided by IDB BANK.

What we do

How does IDB BANK protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we restrict access to your nonpublic personal information to employees and service providers to administer products or services to you. We also use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does IDB BANK collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account or apply for a loan
- Show your government issued ID or make a wire transfer

Use your credit or debit card

We may also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit some, but not all, sharing relating to

- Affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates using your information to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account, unless you tell us otherwise.
